Oh I'm very sorry I "wasn't there" for you!

In your "I needed you the most" moment # what?? Maybe 10th 🤔

I thought your moment that you "needed me the most" was when you lost your job, when you deal with your legal divorce, your break up with Luis, your 40 year crisis, your abusive relationship with your ex, your starting point in your own business with Mr Weird and Aribia, your bad relationship with your dad, your re building relationship with your mom, your stress of traveling without Mamacita

BUT no! Weren't any of those!

Sorry! I "wasn't there" for your irresponsibility with Surf 504 construction (or destruction in your case)

I "missed" THAT specific one, what a terrible person I am!

Well sorry 🙏

Yes. I didn't run the updated numbers. That's why it says approximately 🤔

I would have to run the updated valuation, which as always, I'd send to you for your review - with how I calculated.

You would need to put at least $1000 up front to secure the deal to show you're committed. The process doesn't have to start in 2 weeks... we can start in a month or 6 weeks. Or 8 weeks. How about we say must start in the next 3 months.

I'm struggling with a lot of emotions right now, and I feel like maybe you think I'm trying to mess with you, which I'm not. I'm really angry, frustrated, and hurt because it feels like you abandoned me when I needed you most. You left, and when you could have helped, you didn't, and it seemed like you took some satisfaction in that.

After dealing with all of that, I was angry — angry at the situation and angry that I'm out more money. Now, I'm down to just $100, and my next move had been thinking about selling a house to cover everything. Morada Mami came to mind, but even though it might make sense, it would feel like I'm doing it to hurt you. I don't want that. I wouldn't ever - and also, I did that for you.

This is all coming from the pain of feeling like you and your brother jumped ship, leaving me to deal with everything alone. We sat down and talked about these things together, but now I feel like the bad guy, and that hurts. I gave everything I had to help you and Ale, and I can't believe you turned your back on me, started keeping secrets, and became so closed off. It's hard to understand why things turned out this way, and it's left me feeling very confused and hurt.

Morada Mami is when I knew. So it's not such a happy memory for me.

Hola Nick

Thank you for your proposal

Here some adjustments we would need to make in order to go forward

These are the prices of the properties and based of the information was presented to me from you on your own computer couple months ago:

*Only real estate value

$137.16 Arlene. Debt

$100.00 Surf 211. No debt

$90.00 Medellín No debt

$202.000 Addison. Debt (almost paid off)

$237.500 Surf 504. Debt

The value of Aribia As a whole

Total $800.000

Debt (never specified) $200.000 approx

ARIBIA $800.000 approx

Lulu 10% ownership $80.000

Value of Medellin $90.000

Leaving $10.000 left

as a sign of good will I'm willing to pay up the $15.000 for the remaining balance

In the payments you proposed of $506.31 per month for a 30 month period starting September 1st 2024

I'd pay Ensurance, taxes and maintenance of the property for the whole time

*No upfront payments

Payments each 1st day of the month

1. Buyout Opportunity: It allows me to buy out Morada Mami for $90,000.
2. Ownership Transfer: My 10% ownership in ARIBIA LLC, currently valued at approximately $80.000 (reflecting the value of properties minus liabilities/loans), would be reinvested into ARIBIA LLC - MORADA MAMI.

3. Rent Credit: I will not receive any rent credit for the rent already paid
4. Low-Interest Loan: The remaining balance of approximately $ 15.000 will be financed with a low-interest loan at 4.34% (based on the current IRS AFR).
5. Payment Terms: The loan is payable over a 30 months period, resulting in monthly payments of $506.31 (principle + interest).

Transfer of Ownership

Upon starting the payments, after the payment of the 1st month (Sep 1st 2024)

ARIBIA LLC will transfer full ownership interest in Morada Mami to Luisa Arias, including all rights, titles, and interests in the Medellin property with a mortgage between the two parties until the completion of 30 monthly payments is completed, without any right of sell or lease the property.

Besides these adjustments, we can leave the rest of the agreement as you presented yesterday to me and go forward with the plan

Thank you!

Hi Lulu,

Given the differences in our visions but our continued care for each other, and considering the business's need to continue growing while shedding investments that no longer align, I have a proposal that I hope you will consider with the utmost love and respect. My goal is to ensure that you and your family gain true strength and security with 100% ownership of a place to call home.

The draft agreement below includes the following key points:

1. Buyout Opportunity: It allows you to buy out Morada Mami for $90,000.
2. Ownership Transfer: Your 10% ownership in ARIBIA LLC, currently valued at approximately $40,000 (reflecting the value of properties minus liabilities/loans), would be reinvested into ARIBIA LLC - MORADA MAMI.
3. Rent Credit: You will receive an additional $4,800 credit against the buyout of Morada Mami for the rent paid to date.
4. Low-Interest Loan: The remaining balance of approximately $42,800 will be financed with a low-interest loan at 4.34% (based on the current IRS AFR).
5. Payment Terms: The loan is payable over a 9-year period, resulting in monthly payments of $506.31 (principle + interest).

I'd like to give you two weeks to review the proposal, consider all the details, and discuss it with any advisors if needed. If you decide to move forward, we would require a $1,000 upfront payment as a sign of commitment. This would be due upon your acceptance of the agreement, before we proceed with the ownership transfer.

I hope this proposal resonates with you and provides a path forward that benefits you and your family. Please take your time to review it, and we can discuss any questions or concerns you may have.

Nick
